EDITORIAL POLICY

The journal of Development Communication and Applied Theatre (JODCAAT) is fundamentally interdisciplinary in orientation and tailored to disseminate research information in the core areas of Development Communication, Community Theatre, Theatre in Education, Drama in Education (DIE) Children's Theatre, Creative Dramatics, Therapeutic Drama and other related areas. It is published four times in a year. The board receives articles all year round for assessment/review. Articles are published after positive assessment has been received from the reviewers and in some cases; prescribed corrections have been made by the authors.

The editorial board has no obligation to publish articles which do not receive favourable assessment or articles which are adjudged substandard by our reviewers.
